From the live events to print and digital campaigns, it's been an extremely successful partnership for us."

Cherry Cos.

Mark DeWitt, General Manager

"After setting some very aggressive sales goals, Cherry Cos. started advertising in BIC back in 2008," said Mark DeWitt, vice president of operations for Cherry. "Since then, we have seen a double-digit increase in the number of sales leads, and this seems to climb each year as BIC continues to broaden its reach. Tom Gerstenecker, VP of Sales and Estimating

"Establishing a relationship with the amazing people at BIC has provided us additional opportunities to network and meet other key people we previously may have not been exposed to. We have made new contacts we feel we wouldn't have made without advertising in BIC. We also have had a few previous customers contact us and say they see our ad in BIC every month, which reminds them of our capabilities and quality-fabricated products."

Hancock Whitney

Wesley Williamson, Assistant Vice President

"BIC actually introduced us to a multitude of other people. Predominantly, it's been in the fabrication, manufacturing space with mutual contacts through the BIC Alliance. Some cases it's been through events, and other times it's just been networking and reaching out."

"The key reward for us has been meeting people that, honestly, we probably wouldn't have met before. We actually got a new client last year in the middle of COVID through BIC. They had no idea who we were, and we had no idea who they were. (BIC President) Jeremy (Osterberger) actually put us in contact and said, 'Hey, you guys should talk.'"

Knight Industrial

Shelby Knight, Chief Marketing Officer

"What I like about BIC is it's more of a partnership. It's not, 'you run your ad and then you're done.' It's a, 'Hey, are y'all going to this event? I want to come get pictures of you, put your picture in the magazine.' It's more of a partnership. BIC gives us some contacts and just different features on social media."

Tray-Tec, Inc.

Jose Alas, Outside Sales Representative

“BIC brings a lot of value to the table. I think one of the things that I enjoy the most is I'm able to call (Account Executive) Laurie (Tangedahl) at any point in time, and she's going to answer the phone, and she's going to give me information that I need. So, I'm very happy with BIC. I'm blessed to have BIC on my side and definitely, hopefully, we can continue to do that.”

SWAT

Jimmy Quick, Vice President

“When we started SWAT, we did not have a desk in our office back in late 2013. One of the first people we called was BIC so that we could get our name out there, and BIC came and sat down in our kitchen because that was the only place that we had a table. We feel that BIC's been instrumental for SWAT in terms of branding, getting our name out to the industry. We were a year-old company at the time, let's say, and we would walk into a customer, and they felt like they knew us. They felt like we had been around for 30 years, but we hadn't. And I believe a lot of that had to do with how BIC promoted us. And so, we're actively involved with BIC every year, and we appreciate the partnership.”

USA Industries

John Platt, Outside Sales Representative

“We've actually had a very good relationship with BIC. We do have a number of things in BIC magazine as well as emails that go out. And from what I've heard from our marketing manager, we've had a lot of feedback from that—either direct call-ins or emails from things that they've seen. So, we definitely want to thank you for giving us that opportunity to reach people that we wouldn't have been able to reach on our own.”

Proco Products Inc.

Miquel Williams, Advertising and Marketing Manager

"We are always looking for ways to get more information out about Proco Products and who we are. BIC has been extremely helpful in making sure they support that initiative by helping us to publish as much content as we can. I, for one, know that BIC can be used for so much more: press releases, employee profiles, etc. My goal is to feed as much content into BIC as possible.

"It is well worth the advertising dollars. Working with a company that is not only passionate about the industry, but also takes care of its customers, is golden. The business relationship is truly a joint effort between publisher and advertiser. With the tradeshows I attend, I have noticed that a BIC representative always makes it a point to stop by and check in with us. It's always nice to have them stop by to say they appreciate us and our business."
